

New England ITS Vendor Showcase

Improving Safety and Mobility Using Current Intelligent Sign Technologies for Intersections, Highway and Rural Applications

By

Bryan Everard – Swarco Signs

This overview will go over the common and new uses of blankout signs in the industry. Also in the training, we will discuss the popular current uses of intelligent signs from Travel Times to safety messaging such as wrong way warnings to Flex-Lanes to Truck Parking and the use of mini DMS signs for rural warning applications. The presentation will be conducted by Bryan Everard, Northeastern and Midwest Business Development Manager for Swarco Signs. Bryan has been in the Traffic industry since 2002 managing areas of business such as Signalized Intersections, Warning Systems and ITS Solutions for both rural and urban areas.
